O R D E R:

In pursuance of a memorial submitted by certain supervisors of cooperative societies and on the recommendation of the Provincial Cooperative Advisory Council the Registrar of Cooperative Societies has proposed that supervisors employed in cooperative institutuions may be recruited as Junior Inspectors of Cooperative Soceities provided they possess the following qualifications:

i. they should be eligible for the University course or should possess the minimum general educational qualification specified in the schedule to the General Rules;
ii. they should have passed all the four tests. viz., Cooperation, Book-keeping, Banking and Auditing in one of the Cooperative Institutes in the Province;
iii they should have put in at least five years of service as supervisors and iv they should not have completed 40 years of age.

H.E. the Governor of Madras accepts the Registrar's proposals subject to the modification that the age limit shall be 30 years instead of 40 years. The Madras Public Service Commission has been addressed to call for and admit applications from supervisors also on the basis mentioned above, in the ensuing special selection of Junior Inspectors.
